LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(i.) To acquire from the Dominion Government or the Government of any Province, any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges which may be found necessary or advisable for the attainment of the objects of the Company, or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on the Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(j.) To construct or equip cold-storage plants, and to carry on the business of cold storage, and to harvest, buy, sell, and manufacture ice, wholesale and retail, to deal generally in ice, both natural and artificial, and to utilize ice and other material for the purpose of cold storage:

(k.) To carry on business as dealers in ice, stone, sand, lime, tin, lumber, brick, dry-goods, groceries, and general merchants, both wholesale and retail and on commission, and to act as brokers in the buying and selling of the same, and to carry on the business of real-estate, insurance, and transfer agents, warehousemen, butchers and meat-packers, and common carriers by land and water; and generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently or advantageously carried on in connection with the powers herein contained; and, in connection with the business of the Company, to establish branch factories, stores, agencies, depots, and other markets for the purchase and sale of any article dealt in by the Company:

(l.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water, or by the lease or purchase of water records or water privileges:

(m.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works, and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof:

(n.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

(o.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose to which electricity may be applied:

(p.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water, or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any race-way, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvements and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(q.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct and lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, sell, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

(r.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or other persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

(s.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges, fishing licences, or leases which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and in payment for same to allot shares of the Company, credited as such or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price thereof, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(t.) To apply for any Act of Parliament or Legislature, or any other powers or authorities, which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(u.) To acquire, register, and use any brands, patent rights, licences, and trade-marks or privileges of a like nature, and to grant licences thereunder, and to dispose of the same in whole or in part, and at any time or times:

(v.) To pay for any assets or property, real or personal, or rights, privileges, permits, or licences acquired by the Company, either wholly or partly in shares or stock of the Company, either partly or fully paid up, or for any valuable considerations as from time to time may be determined:

(w.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses, or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred, shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

(a.) To obtain from Charles Stewart Mann by way of leases or licences, patents numbers 2,094,900, 2,127,040, 2,116,904, 2,158,333, and 2,189,470, issued to him by the Government of the United States of America, and patents numbers 377,632, 387,994, 387,992, 387,993, and 387,995, issued to him by the Government of the Dominion of Canada, in respect of devices known as "Collapsible Tube Cap Dispensers":

(b.) To apply for, purchase, licence, lease, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any other secret of other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, lease, sublease, licence, or grant licences in respect thereof, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, patents, leases of patents, licences for use of patents, or information so acquired:

(c.) To lease, sublease, license, sublicense, and (or) acquire and dispose of any undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for royalties on shares, debentures or securities of any other company, wheresoever incorporated:

(d.) To take part in the management, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any other company or undertaking, and for the purpose to appoint and remunerate any director, manager, accountant, or other expert or agent:

(e.) To acquire and hold shares, stocks, debentures, debenture-stocks, bonds, obligations issued or guaranteed by any company, wheresoever situated or carrying on business:

(f.) To allot shares of the Company, credited as fully paid, to members of the syndicate who advanced money for the purposes of the inventions and the procuring of the patents mentioned in subparagraph (a) of this clause:

(g.) To assume all the liabilities of the syndicate:

(h.) To allot any shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price or consideration for any property rights purchased, leased, licensed to or acquired by the Company, or for any services rendered to the Company for any valuable consideration:

(i.) If thought fit, to take the necessary steps to dissolve the Company and to reincorporate its members as a new company for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or effecting any enlargement or modification in the Company's constitution or capitalization:

(j.) To grant to Charles Stewart Mann an irrevocable power of attorney to conclude, sign, seal, and execute on behalf of the Company all such contracts, agreements, leases, subleases, licences, sublicences, and arrangements as he may deem expedient to carry out the objects of the Company in the manufacture, advertising, and selling of the articles or devices covered by the patents leased or licensed from the said Charles Stewart Mann, as set out in subclause (a) of this clause, and nothing contained in this memorandum of association shall qualify this clause.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except where the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause of this clause, and the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of its objects in any part of the world.

MISCELLANEOUS.

“ COMPANIES ACT.”

I HEREBY CERTIFY that there have this day been registered, pursuant to the “Companies Act,” an office copy of an order of the Honourable the Chief Justice, dated the 18th day of April, 1940, confirming wholly a special resolution of the Kingcrest Tennis Club, Limited, for the alteration of the objects of the Company, and a copy of the memorandum of association of the Company as altered.

Subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) have been eliminated, and the following substituted therefor:—

“ 3. (a.) To provide tennis and other sport grounds in, around, or about the City of Revelstoke, B.C., and to lay out and prepare such other grounds for tennis, bowling, cricket, badminton, and other athletic sports and pastimes, and other purposes of the Company, and to provide a club-house, gymnasium, rooms or meeting-place, and other conveniences in or near the City of Revelstoke, B.C., for the convenience and entertainment of members of the Club in connection therewith:

“(b.) To promote the game of tennis, bowling, badminton, skating, curling, ski-ing, and other athletic sports and pastimes, and to provide accommodation, entertainment, and, if necessary, refreshments for the members of the Club in connection therewith:

“(c.) To hold or arrange tennis, bowling, badminton, cricket, and other athletic matches and competitions, and provide for prizes, awards, and distinctions:

“(d.) To buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of apparatus, and all kinds of provisions, liquid and solid, required by persons frequenting the Company’s premises.”

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and forty.
